REPLY TO THE INFIDEL ATTACK OF THE INDEPENDENT ON CHRISTIANITY.

After having proven already by conscience and nature the real existence of a Supreme Being above the universe, as the foundation of all other Christian principles, we will now enter next into the discussion of Revelation, which is intimately and inseperably connected with the Supreme Being, so that if the latter is acknowledged the former cannot be avoided or denied. Before we produce our arguments on this point we find it necessary to light for a moment on the persons of infidels to show why infidels are not capable of reasoning right on this subject. We have shown that the Materialists God is no God at all, but a blind, chain-bound monster without consciousness, will, or real absolute mind. People believing such wicked nonsense of course cannot earnestly speak of Revelation. The fault of their ignorance herein lays in their blindness about the Supreme Being, and its supreme mind, will, and power. With such, of course, if they persist in their opposition to our arguments on the existence of the Supreme Being, we have no further word to lose. It is hard to reason with the unreasonable, or convict a crazy mind. The acknowledgment of a Supreme Being must be the basis of an understanding of Revelation. None of the animal creation can originate thought, force it upon others by will, and transmit it by speech, except man. If man is able to do this, should God, whose mind, will and powers are supremely above everything else, not be able to do the same, if he thinks it necessary? Only an idiot will deny it.

We have also shown, that when infidels refuse to believe anything which they cannot comprehend with their reason, or sense, that they are forced by that argument to deny the reasoning faculties of their own heads, which they can never comprehend. And did they ever understand the mysteries of sight, taste, smell, feeling and hearing? Mark that. It is by this insane talk they object to Revelation. Such professions are so low, common, and unreasonable that with persons of this discription, we have no further word to lose. Even the little children in school are more reasonable, for they submit to instruction of such things, which they never have seen, heard or tested, smelled or felt before. Without dispute they accept the instruction, and on that alone depends their advancement in science. But the greatest of all teachers is God. And should revelation from Him be only a common thing, to be comprehended by common reason, without divine mysteries and heavenly doctrine? It common things only were revealed, it would not be God like nor answer to the purposes of religions instruction on such matters, on which religion and nature leave us in the dark, and on which we must now have more light. The judgements of infidels on the Bible can claim no respect unless they study the Bible and its principles and unless they try to follow its advice. It is a fact that their judgments is based on mere ignorance and hearsay prompted by evil inclination instead of real investigation and a desire for truth, for it is impossible to do the latter and yet be an infidel. I once happened to meet with a boastful infidel, that tried to persuade a whole crowd of men, but when I asked him about his knowledge of the Bible, he was totally ignorant of its contents, and even knew not the titles of the books. If the unknown writer would study the Bible instead of the Christian Radical and its Auerkery articles, as reported, they would do much better.

But if infidels with such preposessed ideas and prejudices become incapable to judge reasonably and rightly of Revelation and the Bible, the contradictive course of their life, in which audacity of wicked inclination, on one hand and awakening of conscience with its terrible compunction on the other, battle with each other, so that sometimes they are boastful, sometimes full of despair and feelings of wretchedness, also proves their boasting confessions to be unworthy of respect and consideration. They are against themselves. Their mouth and consoience do not harmonize. Notwithstanding their confessions of materialism and unbelief; they know by the admonition of their own consoiences of the existence of a Supreme Being, a moral governor and judge, of the existence of sin as the great moral evil, as the sure anticipation of a future judgment as already commencing realization, of the necessity to appease an outraged conscience and God. So much they surely know and feel. Sometimes this knowledge and feeling is willfully suppressed, but in times of tribulation, misfortune or sickness, they are overpowered with said knowledge and feeling, and are by their influence compelled to think act and speak more soberly and reasonably. It is in this last condition alone, that arguments and revelation and the Bible meet with consideration and acceptance. By their conscience and their wicked natures, as objects so opposite, they are tossed to and fro, and swing like a pendulum in constant motion from one side to the other. Poor Creatures! To day they are boasting, audacious, and full of self conceit; to morrow tribulations and an awakened conscience have mercifully grasped their heart and stopped their mouth and prostrated them to the ground, and there they lay, with all the wicked feelings of despair and emptiness. If an infidel in his unreasonable and boastful condition blows his horn loudly against the Supreme God, his Bible and its doctrines it has no more effect and significance than when a dog barks at the moon. It is his spell, originating out of his spiritual fever. We await the change, the the returning state of soberness reflection and saneness, which must follow as soon as his conscience is awakeded, and then he will listen to argument. To convert an infidel in his boasting spell, is just as impossible in the nature of the case, as to convert and convince a lunatic, because conscience and the consciousness of our sinful state wrought by it are the perquisites of a blessed operation of the Gospel. We wish every infidel to mark that. The faculties of reason, must be guided and controlled by conscience in any investigation, if not they are like a a horse without a bridle. Who would ride on a spirited horse without a bridle? Who would wish to ride in a buggy drawn by horses without restraining lines? The risk would be too great! But it is here otherwise, when infidels speak of reasoning without the guiding and controlling force of conscience? Without conscience man would be a beast in human form, and a wisdom of the reasoning faculties without the controling influence of conscience is beastly wisdom, that brings every one in imminent danger, that trusts himself to it. This base, beastly wisdom, which shine in all the articles of our boastful opponents is as far from real wisdom and intelligence, as the heavens are from the earth.

We ask every honest upright man, after reading the foreg ing statements of the necessity of harmony in mind and conscience, whether it is too much asked of our opponents, when we say that their reasoning must be guided and controlled by their consciences, and not otherwise? If this is true as it must be, then is an infidel only really capable of reasoning on the Revelation and the Bible, when his conscience is awakened and assumes control over the reasoning faculties. the truth of this we will illustrate by examples of real life. In our city of Massillon lived some years ago an infidel man by the name of McClove. No doubt many of our citizens remember the gentleman and his infidelity. I saw him in his audacious, rancorous, infidel state, when insane mockery controlled his tongue and lips, and I saw him also afterwards in his sober reflecting state, a short time before his death, on a visit to the infirmary of this county. Of course I conversed with him only in this last condition. But when I exhorted him about conscience, sin and future judgement, and his terrible condition in regard to these matters, his former audaciousness was all gone and despair had him in its strong grasp. It was all a pitiful vision. He admitted of his terrible condition, but said, he was at a loss what to do now. Christian preachers he said always exhorted him to do such and such works, but he felt that by his own doings he could not help his case, and so was left, without hope. Of course I told him this was not the advice of the Christian Gospel, and instead of man's work, Gods work, grace and power was to save us. When I saw him in this despairing, hopeless state, I exhorted him to trust in the mercy of his Creator above as manifested realized in the atonement of Christ, and that this was the only foundation of a sure hope for a sinner condemed by his own conscience. He died soon after, but after his death, his wife, who was present at the time, came to me one day in front of our church with the message from her departed husband, to thank me for my exhortation and instruction. This message proves that he sought refuge and hope in the Gospel, and we hope that it rescued him. The lady will certainly testify to its truth to any inquirer. This encouraged me to preach the Gospel to the meanest infidel, for a hope is left that it will do him good some day, when his reflective change comes, when he is no more a beast in human form but a conscious man. Another illustration of an infidel change from a crazy state into a sober and reflective one, as necessary for a consideration of Gospel truth. In Wisconsin near the city of Milwaukee a rancorous German infidel and materialist held an infidel speech to the German farmers some years ago, in which he declared there was no God nor devel, no hell or heaven, no conscience or sin, that man was consequently free to live at pleasure without the dread of a future judgement, as mere assertions of priests. One farmer, who had neglected religious duties for some time, thought this to be especial good news in his condition and so full of love and respect was he for that man in his pleasure, that he resolved to invite him as a friend and guest to his house. Of course he intended to live upon these Doctrines, and had no doubt the bold speaker certainly would do the same. But unfortunately for their infidel comfort, a change came, that turned the matter in both cases. The speaker in his walk to the farmer's house, stepped over a fence fell down and hurt himself some, and to the great terror of his misguided followers, the bold speaker lost his audacity and courage, and despairingly cried: "O, God! O, God! O, Jesus! O, Jesus! There the coward lay moaning and wailing. the ungodly language too had fled away. Of course the farmer had to keep him till he was well to leave the farm. But the despairing awful cries of the infidel together with his unmanly cowardice brought the farmer to reflection, and was such a hammer to arouse his conscience that he commenced distrusting his infidel guest and his assertions, that when the infidel left, he told him he was a humbugger and never return to his neighborhood again to make another infidel speech, and from that time he connected himself with the church. O, could the blind followers of infidelity only see into the empty heart and miserable condition of their masters in times of tribulation and sorrow they would be scared by the vision, and stop and reflect, before their own turn comes, and seek for better foundations to base the hope of their life upon. Diodorus called the slow and ancient philosopher, after writing his profound treatice on the awful nothing, died in despair. And who has not heard of the awful change of Voltair the great hero of infidelity on his death bed, as reported and substanciated by Abbe Barmelo's history of Jacobinism? He recanted his former life and principles before witnesses and cried in despair: "O Christ! O Jesus Christ! In crimination and recrimination on his infidel companions he is said to have ended his wicked life.

Of this renowned Voltair, Cowper writes:

The Frenchman first in literary fame,
Mention him if you please, Voltair? the same.
With spirit, gentus, eloquence, supplied,
Lived long, wrote much, laughed heartily, and died.
The scripture was his jest-book; whence he drew
Bon mots to gall the Christian and the Jew;
An infidel in health, but what when sick?
Oh—Then, a text would touch him to the quick.

Now only one more illustration of infidel change from audacity to cowardice before we take up our arguments on revelation. A friend of mine who formerly lived in this county, came into this county some 25 years ago as a missionary from a German missionary institution and related to me the following as a real fact: Said missionary had been on the same ship with a learned German infidel a rancorous materialist, when they crossed the Atlantic ocean. One day when the weather was pleasent and the sea calm the missionary stood on one side of the ship to witness the wonderful curiosities of the sea,, when at once the materialist stopped at his side. The missionary had made no acquaintance with the man, directed the attention of his strange friend to these wonderful phenomena of the sea, and expressed his admiration of the great wisdom and power of the Supreme Being and his wonderful creation, when at once the infidel turned toward him in a bold audacious manner and replied: "What! God! there is no God, all this is the work of nature." The missionary offended at this wicked, bold language lifted up his finger and earnestly replied: "What! no God! Wait you wicked man, God will soon show you! You mockery, you will yet experience his powerful existence." And at once they parted. Each went his own way unmolested by the other, and without a further word passing between them from that time. But one day after this occurrance a heavy storm arose. The ship groaned under the great force of clashing waves, and the force and noise of their dash and clash realized the danger and its inmates. This awful situation and danger awakened the conscience of of the rancorous infidel, and he at once thought the threatened vengence of God for his wicked expressions was now upon him and he trembled cowardlike in despair. But feeling his wickedness and being empty of all hope and courage, he became superstitious, and run towards the missionary to grasp his hands seemingly to appease the vengence of God thereby. His audacity had fled away and with trembling heart and conscience he bowed before the Christian as, if he had it in his power to calm the storm and waves. These illustrations of infidel characters, we hope, will convince friend and foe how little trust the confessions and boastings of infidels deserve, and how incapable they are to judge spiritual matters, as long as their consciences are not awakened. Their work is the work of a spiritual runaway, let loose from the mooring of conscience. Whoever has anything to do with this runaway business of infidelity is in eminent danger to loose his soul reason and all hope of salvation. These considerations will prepare the way to understand the arguments of revelation better, which we will discuss in our next article because it has proved to our mind the necessity of a harmony of reason and conscience and their combined strength for an investigation of the subject of revelation.

Here are a few extracts from Don Quixote:

"Jest about the close of that long hard winter," said a superintendant of a Sunday school, "as I was wending toward my duties one brilliant Sabbath morning, I glanced down toward the levee, and their lay the city of Hartford!—no mistake about it, there she was, puffing and panting, after her long pilgrimage through the ice. A glad sight? Well, I should say so! And then came a pang, right away, because I should have to instruct empty benches, sure; the youngsters would all be off welcoming the first steamboat of the season. You can imagine how surprised I was when I opened the door and saw half the benches full! My gratitude was free, large and sincere. I resolved that they should not find me unappreciative. I said:

"'Boys, you cannot think how proud it makes me to see you here, nor what renewed assurance it gives me to your affection. I confess that I said to myself, as I came along and saw the City of Hartford was in—'

"'No! but is she, though?'

"And, as quick as any flash of lightening, I stood in the presence of empty benches! I had brought them them the news myself."

What the drunkard relinquishes.—Mr. NcLeod, an English writer, puts the following language in the months of those who visit the rumseller's den:

There's my money—give me drink! There's my clothing and food and fire of my wife and children—give me drink! There's the education of the family and the peace of the house—give me drink! There's the rent I have robbed from my landlord, fees I have robbed from my schoolmaster, and innumerable articles I have robbed from the shopkeeper—give me drink! Pour me out drink for yet more, I will pay for it!

There's my health of body and peace of mind. there's my character as a a man and my profession as a Christian, I give up all—give me drink! More yet can I give! There's my heavenly inheritance and the eternal friendship of the redeemed; there, there is all hope of salvation! I give up my savior! I give up my God! I give up all that is great good and glorious in the universe, I resign forever, that I may be drunk!

The bright spots of a man's life are few enough without blotting any out: and since, for a few moments of mirth, we have an hour of sadness, it were a sorry policy to diminish the few rays that illuminate our chequered existence. Life is an April day,—sunshine and showers. The heart, like the earth, would cease to yield good fruit, were it not sometimes watered with the tears of sensibility; and the fruit would be worthless, but for the sunshine and smiles.

SOMETHING ABOUT NEW YORK MECHANICS.

The late George M. Tunison, a builder of some note, left a fortune of $200,000 for his heirs to quarrel over, which duty they did to the best of their power. Richard F. Carman, once the prominent landed proprietor at Washington Heights, commenced life as a house carpenter, and his sign was to be seen at his shop in New st., Richard F. Carman, builder. It was at this trade that he made an enormous estate which amounted to a million. William Bruce, the late distinguished type founder, also made a large fortune. He was an enterprising man, and was disposed to assist young printers by selling them materials on credit.

Richard Hoe was another successful mechanic, and the saw and printing press establishment which he founded is now worth a million Wm. Bogardus, a boss painter in Center st., although not, strictly speaking a money making man, has made not far from $100,000 in the course of his business career. Luke Terbosa, another boss painter in the same neighborhood, made a fortune which he left to his boys, who soon scattered it by the usual dissipations of city life. George Law himself laid the foundation of his great wealth, while working at the trade of a stone mason, and is probably the most successful man which the craft has ever produced.

The printers come in for their share of fortune's favors. Greeley, as every one knows, served as a jour for two years and was glad to get a sit on a Greek testament, which tried his defective eyes as well as his most enduring patience. I have sometimes thot' that his subsequent turn for theology may be due to this practical introduction into holy writ. But Greeley's case is outdone by Bonner, who has five times as much wealth, and the latter set type for the Hartford Courant not over twenty years ago, and afterwards read proof for the Mirror in this city. Alvord, the master printer in Vanderwater street, is rich enough to spend half his time at his residence near Hartford, where he has a small but valuable farm. John F. Frow, another master printer, located up in Greene st., has also become rich, and so has Sam Green, of Frankford st. Sam is the son of the worthy Beriah Green of Whitsbury, who was for thirty years one of the foremost men in Central New York.—Cor. Rochester Democrat.

A THRILLING INCIDENT.

The world of fiction hardly contains a more thrilling chapter than an incident which marked the life of the late Rev. Mr. Lee, Presbyterian minister of the villiage of Waterford, New York.

Dr Lee was sitting in his study about midnight, preparing a discourse to deliver to his congregation, when he heard a noise behind him, and became conscious that some one was in the room. Mr. Lee exclaimed:

"What is the matter?" and turning around in his chair, he beheld a pistol at his breast. The ruffian had entered by a side window, supposing the occupants were locked in slumber.

"Give me your watch and money, and make no noise, or I will fire."

"You may put up your weapon for I shall make no resistance, and you are at liberty to take all the valuables I possess," was Mr. Lee's calm reply.

The burglar withdrew his menacing pistol, and Mr. Lee said:

"I will conduct you to the place where my most precious treasures are placed.

He opened the door and pointed to the cot where his two children, lay, slumbering in the sweet sleep of innocence and peace.

"These," said he, "are my choicest jewels. Will you take them?"

He proceeded to say as a minister of the gospel he had few earthly possessions, and that his means were devoted to one object—the education of his motherless children.

The burglar was deeply and visibly affected by these remarks. Tears filled his eyes, and he expressed his utmost sorrow at the act he was about to commit.

After a few remarks by Mr. Lee, the would be criminal consented to kneel and join in prayer; and there, in that lonely house, amid the silence of midnight, the offender poured fourth his remorse and penitence, while the representative of religion, of peace and good will, told him to "go his way and sin no more." Such a case has few parallels.

Not long since Brown was on a visit to Lookout Mountain, Georgia, and was much struck with fact that a fine jet of water was thrown up above the top of the eminece on which the hotel stands. Walking round the jet admiringly, he accosted a plain country man with:

'My friend, is this water forced up by a ram?' meaning a course of hydraulic contrivance so named.

'A ram?' exclaimed the countryman.

'Yes, a ram, I say.'

'What on airth?—no sir. it's a darned big mule! and it's tremendous hard work for him. Come here and I will show him to you.'

CUT THIS OUT.—A German forest keeper, eighty two years old, not wishing to carry to the grave an important secret, publishes in the Leipsic Journal a receipt he has used for fifty years, and which he says saved several men and a great number of animals from a horrible death by hydrophobia. The bite must be bathed as soon as possible with warm vinegar and water. When this has dried, a few drops of muriatic acid poured upon the wound will destroy the poison of the saliva, and relieve the patient from all present and future danger.

The republican meeting held at this place in Madison Hall, on last Friday evening, was well attended, and we understand from our German friends, were ably addressed in their language by Mr Mueller, candidate for lieutenant governor. He has the reputation of being a speaker of considerable force, and makes a favorable impression as to his general political views, wherever he addresses the people. From some cause, we have not ascertained why, Mr. Lehman, was not along, so but one speech was made on that evening. Our German people of republican views were well pleased.

Hon. Wm. Lawrence ex-congressman of the fourth Ohio district, we understand, and Gen. Grosnover, addressed a large audience of republicans very acceptably, on Saturday evening, in front of the American Hotel. As far as we can learn these gentlemen gave general satisfaction to all of their political way of thinking—making sharp and pungent thrusts, and plainly pointing out the differences between the two parties. Judge Lawrence is a gentlemen of much public experience as a speaker, and is familiar with the peculiar ways and windings of the democracy. So that party fares rather badly at his hands, for he is not one to withhold his political sentiments. Gen. G. also gave satisfaction to his hearers.

The republicans are strong in their power in Cuyahoga and Summit counties—so overwhelming are their majorities that the democracy can do nothing without a split among their opponents. That is the case this year in both the counties named. Matters of a local nature have produced dissensions among the republicans, and they have nominated independent or bolting tickets, but the democrats in neither county have a ticket. They calculate to take advantage of the split, but whether they will profit thereby or not remains to be seen.

In Columbiana county the prohibitionist and labor reformers have a ticket of their own, and in some townships are working earnestly. They will probably have an increased vote over last year. The truth is, these temperance men are at work in many places, and have nominated tickets in no less than thirty counties in Ohio. Politicians will be forced to respect them soon, for these temperance votes will tell for somebody, and instead of diminishing they will increase, notwithstanding the indifference of church and state.

Gen. McClellan during the war time was considered great on strategy. He was credited as being successful in that branch of military tactics, but it did n't give him much of a fame for routing the enemy. Lately, however, he has achieved a species of strategy which entitles him to considerable credit. The Tammany thieves, as they are called, tried to get him into their ring by giving him a responsible office, in order, not much doubt, to make a scapegoat of him on whom to pile their mountains of sins. Very properly he refused to accept their offers, and thus keeps himself out of their disgraceful position.

The German democrats, of whom there are large numbers in New York city, who have been faithful to the party, lately seceded, and are disposed to fight against Tammany. Their sense of honesty don't permit them to act with the rogues who have been stealing millions of money and subverting all the political virtues which they could use for their mercenary ends. As there are thousands of voters among the Germans this movement will make a great change in the politics of that city.

Following the example of many others Mr. H. Alterkruse has demolished the wood shed in front of his store, and is making other decided improvements, so that the place will soon appear like a new one. Others will imitate these practical precepts and thus add to the attractions of their property.

John Packer, of Lawrence township offers for sale, on the 17th prox. horses, and other stock, wagons, lumber, and a variety of other articles.

Brick Pomeroy thinks the new departure of the democracy is death to the party, so he is emphatically and earnestly opposed to it. To this movement he attributes the defeat of the party in California. He denounces the departure as cowardice of the leaders—they were afraid to meet the emergency direct, so jumped on the republican platform. In his last weekly Brick has several columns denouncing the movement as fatal to the coming success of the democracy. True, it is very much demoralzed, and has about sinned away its day of grace.

Mr C E Vent, 28 West Fourth street, Cincinnati, O., has just issued a new book, State Prison Life, by one who has been there. While we have too many reasons for believing the work narrates a long list of literal truths concerning the terrible experiences of prison life, yet they are told in such a way as to have all the attractiveness of a well written romance, and cannot fail to interest the humane reader in behalf of the sufferings of many unfortunates, who are not allowed to tell the world their sorrowful tales of wo. True, we are all down to transgressers of the law, and ask that they may be dealt with according to their sins, but while this is the case there is another side to the picture, and it is this which the writer presents in many phases of its terrible deformity. In the Ohio penetentiary there are something more than a thousand inmates, and over these have been placed, very often inconsiderate, inhuman, reckless men, who, when dressed in a little brief authority, had no sympathy for the unfortunates over whom they excercised brutal control. The writer, who says he unfortunately got into that place in consequence of drunkenness, details many of these repulsive scenes to which prisoners were subjected under the old order of things. But a reform in the prison discipline has been inaugurated, and another class of men are in authority over state prisoners. The improvements made there, part of which the writer realized, are creditable to the spirit of humanity that now takes the place of that brutality which once so generally characterized these places of punishment. In recording literal facts the author thus contrasts the new methods of prison discipline, and any humane reader will rejoice with him that the spirit of vengence which was so prevalent in other days has been supplanted by one of mercy, so that the penitentiary instead of being a grand school of vice is now a reforming agency making men and women better for the considerate treatment they there receive. Mr Vent, the publisher, desires to circulate this book by subscription and solicits agents everywhere.

Columbina county is not far off. The papers coming from that region tell of a Mrs. Dow, of Franklin square, who sued a grog-seller, Simon Coy, before Jacob Estill, Esq. a democratic justice, placing her damages at $250, for making her husband drunk, and the squire very righteously decided in her favor,—she gets the $250. Are there no suffering women here who can pursue the same course? We have the officers, the same law, but where is the courage to carry out the law? The time is coming. Columbiana county is next to Stark.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.

Wednesday Evn'g, Sept. 12, 1871.

Regular Session—Adam Mong presiding. Roll Call—Members present, Messrs. Mong, Kirkland, Bollinger and Willenborg.

Minutes read and approved.

The Street Commissioner submitted his regular report for work done on streets and alleys for week ending Sept, 16 th, to be $65.50 and amount of poll tax performed $20.00, amount of work done in excess of poll tax performed $45.50.

Which report was referred to the committee on streets and alleys to whom was referred the bill of S Parsons, reported said bill as being correct.

The same committee asked one weeks further time in which to make their report in reference to the grading of that portion of High street lying between Main and North streets, (time granted).

Proposals to lay the side walk on the west side of Mill street in Albright's addition, to furnish all material except curbing, and do all the work, to the acceptance of the street and alley committee, were received as follows:

Kelley & Peppers proposal for said work, $272.00. J L Higginbotham proposal for said work, $250.00.

On motion of Mr. Kirkland the propals of Mr Higginbotham was accepted and the work awarded

A bill of Russell and Beach for laying sewer on North street was presented and read and on motion was referred to the committee on streets and alleys.

Orders were drawn on the treasurer as follows:

S. Parsons for carting. $9.00

Joseph Seiler for sundry work to date $704.89

There being no further business the council adjourned.

NEW CENSUS AND PATENT LAWS.—We are indebted to Munn & Co., publishers of the Scientific American, New York, for a neat little bound volume of 110 pages, entitled as above. It contains the complete census of 1870, showing the population, by counties of all the states and territories, with their areas and the population of the principal cities. Also, the new patent laws in full, with forms, official rules, directions how to obtain patents, copyrights, regulations for trade marks, assignments, how to sell patents, etc. Also, large variety of valuable information relating to Water-wheels, steam engines, and other mechanism, with many useful tables and recipes, 175 diagrams of mechanical movements, etc. We advise everybody to send for it as above. Price, 25 cents. A more valuable compendium, for so small a price has rarely been published.

In the enlarged search after new motors, and new applications of those already in use, that is now occupying the attention of inventors, the subject of electricity is receiving the most general study. It is but very lately that scientific minds have believed in the possibility of its use for mechanical purposes, nor does it yet appear applicable to anything demanding great force. In minor matters, however, such as demand cheapness, ease of control, and but little power, it is making great headway. Sewing machines, hand lathes, and that large class of light machinery formerly run by clock work, now bid fair to come under the control of the magnetic fluid, and that at a marvellously small cost. Among the other inventions we note one in telegraphy, which promises to bring it within the understanding of business men. A key board like that of a piano, is used, with a key to each letter and figure, so that great rapidity is combined with perfect simplicity of operation.

On March 4th, 1873,, twenty four seats in the United States Senate will become vacant by the expiration of the terms of office. Of the twenty-four senators whose terms will expire at the date mentioned, three—Garrett Davis, of Kentucky, George Vickere, of Maryland, and Francis P. Blair, Jr., of Missouri—are democrats; the remaining twenty-one are republicans. The latter comprises some of the leading and most experienced members of the senate, such as Lyman Trumbull of Illinois, Oliver P. Morton, of Indiana, James Harlan of Iowa, Roscoe Conkling, of New York, John Sherman of Ohio, Simon Camron, of Pennsylvania, and Justin D. Morrill of Vermont. Although the date when the seats of these senators will become legally vacant may appear a long way off, yet this fall nine of the states represented by some of them will elect legislatures by whom the next senators will be chosen. A year hence legislatures will be elected to choose the remainder of the senators.

The Mount Cenis tunnel, which has just been formally opened, is seven and four fifths miles long, and runs through alternate layers of schist, lime stone, and gympsum, 3,480 feet below the crest of the mountain. Its completion gives a direct line to Calais, on the Straits of Dover, through southern France, to Brindisi, on the Adriatic. The work was begun by Sardinia in 1857, and its total cost will amount to about $15,000,000. When Savoy was incorporated with France in 1860, the French government agreed to share the expense necessary to complete the work, undertaking 20,000,000 francs, and afterward the further sum of 5,500, 000 francs, toward it. The masonry is said to be excellent throughout, and no inconvenience from smoke, steam or mephitic air is experienced, notwithstanding the fact that no ventilating shafts have been sunk.

When will our government deem it necessary to extend protection to the persons and property of citizens of the United States residing in the Spanish American republics? It has only been a short time since an American steamer was seized in the waters of Colombia by an armed party of Colombians, and now we have to record the seizure of another American steamer in the waters of Venezuela by one of the revolutionary parties of that country, and her being fired into. It is about time that we should take prompt action in such matters, and if one of the steamers that are now cruising in the waters of St Domingo for no other purpose than maintaining Baeze in power was dispatched at once to Venezuela to demand redress it would be carrying out the purpose for which our vessels of war are constructed.

A FRANKLIN COUNTY MYSTERY.

They are having a great sensation at Harrisburg, Franklin county. The Columbus correspondent of the Cincinnati Chronicle thus refers to it:

The residence of J. G. Mandle is about three miles from the village, and on the 6th inst. Mrs. Mundle heard some person talking in their yard. She went out, but saw no one; soon a large block of wood was thrown, and afterwards a large number of stones. The next day the same thing was repeated, and the next day with double fury. The neighbors collected, and a strict watch was kept by armed men, but all of no purpose; the bombardment being kept up, and two hundred stones large and small, falling in an hour and fifty one minutes. The sensation grows more sensational when, as our informants state, there is in the Mandle's family a stunted or dwarfed servant girl, and that it was noticed that nearly all the stones fell near where she was. To test the matter, she was removed to different parts of the house, and the stones fell where she was taken each time. On Saturday the girl was sent home and the stones ceased to fall, but on her return Sunday night the wonder recommenced. The neighbors declare that the stones that fell were hot and cold, large and small, and they declare they don't know what it means.

The general results of the Maine election, in their bearings upon the impending presidential contest correspond with returns from California. They embrace a popular indorsement for General Grant's administration which cannot be misinterpreted in reference to the presidential succession. They show that on the Atlantic coast as on the Pacific seaboard the administration is a power of strength to the republican party, which the democracy in their present demoralized and disorganized condition cannot shake, while the figures of the August election in North Carolina and Kentucky indicates that the prevailing public sentiment of the interior of the country is in accord with that of our western and eastern extremities. Indeed, we have seldom during the last forty years, had a better showing than this for the party in power in the local elections of the year next preceding that of the presidential contest. In 1867, our political readers will remember, the republicans in these local elections were so frequently beaten, and the democrats were so remarkably successful, that they were confident of carrying the White House, congress and everything else before them in 1868.

A most wonderful story is current in Savannah of a startling phenomenon in Forada. A part of Orange county has been changed to a lake, and trees, houses and people were ingulfed. There were many witnesses of the phenomenon, one of whom says the first thing that attracted his attention was the trees moving, some sinking gradually out of sight, the tops revolving more and more rapidly as they sank and disappeared. Then the whole earth far as the eye could reach was sinking and its place supplied by sea of waters, rushing, seething and boiling with the noise of a mighty cataract, and ever and anon casting to the surface the roots and tops of the bodies of mighty pines and oaks. The country in every direction is entirely submerged, and is now one vast lake. It is rumored that the town of Orlando is swallowed up, and the whole chain of lakes from Apapka to Lake Conway are now united and form an immense inland sea. The people are flying terror stricken from the scene of disaster. The report needs confirmation.

The flea, locust, and grasshopper jump two hundred times their own length; equal to a quarter of a mile for a man.

NATCHEZ, Sept. 24.—Twenty cases and eleven deaths from yellow fever are reported to the Board of Health since it originatad. One death and two new cases to day. Eight cases were reported this afternoon at Vidalia Louisiana, opposite Natchez.

CHARLESTON, Sep. 24.—Nine deaths from yellow fever past 48 hours.

Bro. Williams this week is away at Youngstown attending the meeting of Mahoning Presbytery. He and Bro. Buckingham of Canton exchange pulpits on next Sunday.

David Tatum, a temperance lecturer of much experience and success, on yesterday evening delivered one of his earnest, searching addresses to a rather small audience in the Deciples church. In his remarks he very pertinently asked the question, Where are the ministers of his place, and church members? One preacher, Bro. Thomas, and a very thin attendance of professing religious people were present. There may be adequate reasons for this, but here it is habitual—hundreds knew of the meeting, who were not there. They missed hearing one of the most admirable temperance efforts we have had here for a long time. Mr T. is lecturing on his own authority, and certainly is doing a good work. We hope he may visit us again, when more of our people will hear him.

ONE MILLION OF LIVES SAVED!

It is one of the remarkable facts of this remarkable age, not merely that so many persons are victims of dyspepia or indigestion, but its willing victims. Now we would not be understood to say that any one regards dyspepsia with favor, or feels disposed to rank it among the luxuries of life. Far from it. Those who have experienced its torments would scout such an idea. All dread it, and would gladly dispense with its unpleasant familiarities. There are diseases more acute and painful, and which more frequently prove fatal; but none, the effects of which are more distressing to the body. If there is a wretched being in the world it is

A CONFIRMED DYSPEPTIC.

But it not our intention to discant on the horrors of dyspepsia. To describe them truthfully is simply an impossibility. We have said that dyspepsia is perhaps the most universal of human diseases. This is emphatically the case in the United States. Whether this general prevalence is due to the character of the food, the method of its preparation, or the hasty manner in which it is usually swallowed, is not our province to explain. The great fact with which we are called to deal is this:

DYSPEPSIA PREVAILS

almost universally.

Nearly every other person you meet is a victim, an apparently willing one; for were this not the case, why so many sufferers, when a certain, speedy and safe remedy is within the reach of all who desire to avail themselves of it? But says a dyspeptic, What is this remedy? to which we reply, This great alleviator of human suffering is almost as widely known as the English language. This acknowledged panacea is none other than

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

Would you know more of the merits of this wonderful medicine than can be learned from the experience of others? Try it yourself, and when it has failed to fulfill the assurance of its efficacy given by the proprietor, then abandon faith in it.

LET IT BE REMEMBERED

first of all, that Hoofland's German Bitters is not a rum beverage.

They are not alcoholic in any sense of the term. They are composed entirely of the pure juice or vital principle of roots. The extracts from which they are compounded are prepared by one of the ablest German chemists. The objections which hold with so much force against preparations of this class, namely—that a desire for intoxicating drinks is stimulated by their use, are not valid in case of the German Bitters. Their effects can be in all cases of the biliary system. Hoofland's German Bitters stand without an equal, acting promptly and vigorously on the liver; they remove its torpidity and cause healthful secretion of the bile. They impart vigor and strength to the entire system, causing the patient to feel like another being—in fact, giving him a new lease of life.

THEY PURIFY THE BLOOD,

cleansing the vital fluid of all hurtful impurities and supplanting them with the elements of genuine healthfulness. In a word, there is scarcely a disease in which they cannot be safely and beneficially employed; but in the generally prevalent distressing and dreaded disease, dyspepsia,

THEY STAND UNRIVALED.

Now, there are certain classes of persons to whom extreme bitters are not only unpalatable, but who find it impossible to take them without positive discomfort. For such has been prepared. It is intended for use where a slight alcoholic stimulant is required. This tonic contains all the ingredients of the bitters, but so flavored as to remove the extreme bitterness:

HOOFLAND'S TONIC

acts with almost marvelous effect. It not only stimulates the flagging and wasting energies, but invigorates and permanently strengthens its action upon the liver and stomach thorough, perhaps less prompt than the Bitters, when the same quality is taken is none the less certain. Indigestion, biliousness; physical or nervous prostration, yield readily to its potent influence. It gives strength to weekness, throws despondency to the winds, and starts the restored invalid upon a new and gladsome career. But Dr. Hoofland's benefactions to the human race are not confined to his celebrated or his invaluable Tonic. He has prepared another medicine, which is rapidly winning its way to popular favor because of its intrinsic merits. This is a perfect substitute for mercury, without any of mercury's evil qualities.

GERMAN BITTERS,

These wonderful pills which are intended to act upon the liver, are mainly composed of Podophyllin, or the

VITAL PRINCIPLE OF MANDRAKE ROOT.

Now we disire the reader to distinctly understand that this extract of the Mandrake is many times more powerful than the Mandrake itself. It is the medical virtues of this health giving plant in a perfectly pure and highly concentrated form. Hence it is that two of the Podophyllin pills constitute a full dose, while anywhere six to eight or a handful of other preperations of the Mandrake are required. The Podophyllin stimulating its functions and causing it to make its bilary secretions in regular and proper quantities. The injurious results which invariably follow the use of mercury is entirely avoided by their use.

Possessing desirable qualities, the Podophyllin becomes invaluable as a

FAMILY MEDICINE

No household shou'd be without them. They are perfectly safe, require but two for an ordinary dose are prompt and efficient in action, and when used in connection with Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, or Tonic, may be regarded as certain specifies in all cases of liver complaint dyspepsia, or any of the disorders to which the system is ordinarily subject. The act upon the stomach and bowels, carrying off improper obstructions, while the Bitters or Tonic purify the blood:

J. WALKER Proprietor. R. H. McDONALD & Co., Druggists and Gen. Ag'ts, San Francisco, Cal., and 32 and 34 Commerce St., N.Y.

Vinegar Bitters are not a vile Fancy Drink, Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Roots and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and A LIFE GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to directions and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys, and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful.

Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpid liver and bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald-Head, Sore Eyes, Erisipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effect.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores, cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE, and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. For full directions, read carefully the circular around each bottle, printed in four languages—English, German, French and Spanish.

J. N. Converse, president of the Union City, Ind., announces that the first meeting of the Trotting Park Assoiation will be held Oct. 11th and 12th. Premiums to the amount of $1,400 are offered for the various classes of horses. Accompanying the notice he has favored us with a complimentary.

On Friday and Saturday mornings we were visited by heavy white frosts—generally the forerunner of rains, but they have not yet reached us up to Monday, and the weather promises dry yet a while. The sown grain looks well.

Mr. Greeley will be at Warren, Trumbull county, at which place he will speak on political questions, to-morrow evening. No doubt he will be favored with a full house. Many are curious to see and hear the distinguished man.

Stark county fair began yesterday, at Canton, and will continue four days. Thus far the weather has been favorable, or at least dry—, perhaps too dry and may be dusty—to be agreeable. The overclouded sky at times threatens to storm before long.

We learn that the democratic managers of their campaign in Ohio have withdrawn the Gen. Ewing meeting that was to have transpired here to day. Sorry, for we would like to have heard the true faith expounded by that "bright and particular star" of eratic fame.

At the coming election it will become necessary for the voters of Perry townships to elect two justices of the peace, as Mr. Adam Hammersmith has resigned—two years before the expiration of his time—and somebody will have to be chosen to fill his place.

As soon as the new gas house and machinery are completed we are to have more light as the street posts are up and the tops are being placed on them ready for use. A very few weeks will bring about this result.

Dr. I. Steese and the other members of his family who spent several weeks traveling in the east have returned, and the familiar faces of the doctor and Charles once more welcome their friends at the accustomed place of business—First National Bank.

Yesterday morning Mr. Clarence Brown, a young gentleman of much promise, left this place for Ann Arbor, Mich., for the purpose of attending the law school of that place. He has the best wishes of his many friends here for his success.

After an absence of more than two months Messrs J. E McLain and Joseph Coleman will return to their homes in this place on next Monday. During their absence they have traveled many thousands of miles, having been away off in California, Washington territory and other distant states and territories.

On last Saturday night one or more burglars broke into the hardware store of Bowman & Maier, in this city, from which they abstracted some $75 worth of goods, consisting of cutlery, pistols, &c. Seems that these thieves and robbers are becoming rather bold, and some of them may meet with trouble before long. We hope the perpetrators in this nefarious business will be overtaken and dealt with as severely as the law permits. People have but little mercy for such robbers—they are the enemies of honest and upright people, and should be set to work in the penitentiary.

Mr Henry Diellhenn, the junior, gentlemanly proprietor of P. & H. Diellhenn's new clothing store, is about to start eastward for a new stock of seasonable goods in his line. In a short time he expects to return amply supplied with a large and varied assortment of everything—such as cannot fail to please his hosts of customers. Mr. D's experience in this branch of trade, though not so long as that of many others, will enable him to make such selections as cannot but please, for his taste and judgment specially qualify him to excel in deciding on the quality and styles of stock adapted to the wants of the market of this place.

ENLARGED—the Cleveland Leader also the Cleveland Herald. Both are spirited papers, conducted by wide awake men, and appear to be prospering. There is a political wrangle among the republicans there, and both these papers oppose it.

Among the pleasant places at which the tired traveler wishes to find repose there are none more pleasant and welcome than the Arlington House, Alliance. Quiet, orderly, obliging, prompt and agreeable are the marked traits which characterize the gentle manly proprietor, who knows and provides for the wants of his numerous guests. The wayfaring man will find the Arlington House an agreeable home.

Stark County Fair

Begins on Tuesday next, the 26th, and continues four days.

A Grand Exhibition

Of Horses,
Cattle,
Sheep,
Swine,
Agricultural Implements,
Manufactured Articles,
Fruits,
Flowers,
Fine Arts,
Grain,
Vegetables,
Fowls,

And many more objects of interest.

It is quite familiar to all of us who took an interest in the matter that nearly a year ago it was moved, seconded and carried that a Young Men's Christian Association be formed. Among the best citizens of the place took an active part in consumating the idea—an association was formed. A prominent feature of it was the religious exercises in which all who felt desirous might participate. Another great end aimed at was the securing of a place where young men might come together and spend their evenings in reading papers and books of instruction. Rooms were selected, finely carpeted, and tastefully prepared for guests. But where are the readers? True, during the long hot days and short nights of summer it could not be expected that so full an attendance should be had, but nature is now changing all of that—the days are shortening, and the nights increasing in hours, then why not spend a portion of each evening at those beautiful rooms in reading? There are many papers and a number of magazines and books, all of which contain matter worthy of perusal. There are scores of young men who are loitering about every night in the week, smoking, and perhaps many of them drinking that which brings on drunken habits, who had a thousand times better save their money and store their minds with useful knowledge which they can obtain merely by availing themselves of it. The rooms are free to them—so are the materials for reading. But it is difficult, it may be said, to keep up an interest such as to entice the young men. We know not what the routine is there now, but without intruding would suggest that some of the leading members of the association take upon themselves to deliver a brief home lecture two or three evenings each week. Taking turns at these exercises the lot would not fall on the same one twice in a month—for there are a number competent to do this service, and quit themselves creditably. We but make these suggestions to try to attract attention to the object in organizing the association. Perhaps other and better ideas are to be put into practice—if so we hope they may be carried out. It is hardly creditable to a place taking the title of a city not to have live, wide awake and well established reading room of some sort. All rests upon the people. Especially do we hope our young men will go there and read, whether they participate or feel an interest in the religious exercises or not.

All persons having legal claims on the city for putting up gas posts, digging trenches, or aiding in the work, are requested to present the same to the council immediately.

The Columbiana county fair, which took place on three days of last week, is set down as one of the best ever held there. Stock, grains, fruits, implements, manufactures of many kinds, and the fine arts were all very creditable to our neighbors—their 22d annual fair. Quite a display of superior cattle, sheep and horses were on the grounds; and of potatoes there were many magnificent specimens. Mr. Wm. Myer's carriages were objects of admiration by all who saw them, and especially did a hearse of his manufacture, now the property of Mr. Eells, arrest the attention of the thousands who were present. The weather was all that could be asked, and everybody enjoyed the occasion as one not soon to be forgotten.

The paper mill accident, to which allusion was made last week, that occurred on the 17th inst., at which time Harvey Goines, the engineer, was so severely scalded, has proved a fatal one—Mr. G. having died on Thursday last, after considerable suffering. Everything was done that medical skill could suggest or that human aid afforded, but the fatal work was done, and no skill or effort could avert the result. Repairs, we are informed are going on at the mill, and in a few days it will be once more in successful operation. Let us hope that no more such accidents will befall that establishment.

We not unfrequently notice that some of those nice cars on our railroads are desecrated by the fumes of filthy tobacco smoke, and that, too, when ladies and gentlemen are annoyed by the sickening effluvia, so much so that they often complain of the nuisance, and try to contrive some way to get rid of it—even going out and standing on the platforms, or putting their heads out at the windows at no little risk. Now if the stinking nuisance has to be tolerated aboard our railroad cars, we hope those having charge of them will do the public the favor to keep the tobacco chimneys all in a pen by themselves, and not sicken and disgust people who are not slaves to this heathenish practice.

Mr. H. Falke has just been receiving a new, large and varied stock of millinery goods at his extensive establishment on Main st., and is now prepared to supply the numerous wants of his customers with anything and everything in his line. His long experience enables him to anticipate the wants of this market in all that is desirable to supply the most fashionable or the most practical with the hundreds of varieties of fine goods in his branch of trade. By calling at his well known store customers will realize that their most sanguine wishes can be gratified to the fullest extent.

Massillon Driving Park!

Corporation Notice.

The undersigded having taken the preliminary steps, under the act of the General Assembly of the State of Ohio, entitled an Act to provide for the creation and regulation of incorporated companies in the state of Ohio, and the acts amendatory and supplementary thereto; and having become incorporated under the name and style of the Massillon Driving Park, for the purpose of engaging in the improvement of horses, asses, mules, cattle, sheep, and swine, located in Perry township, Stark county, Ohio, near the city of Massillon; with a capital stock of ten thousand dollars, divided into shares of twenty-five dollars each, hereby give notice, That the books for receiving subscriptions to the capital stock of said corporation will be opened on Friday the 20th day of October next, at the office of the American Hotel, in the city of Massillon, Ohio, at 10 o'clock, A. M., and if on that day, ten per centum on the capital stock is subscribed, then the stockholders will meet at the same time and place for the purpose of electing seven directors for said corporation, and to transact such other business as may then come before said directors.

Exuberant Health

Is a blessing vouchsafed to few. Even those who have been favored by nature with strong constitutions and vigorous frames are apt to neglect the precautions necessary to preserve these precious endowments. Indeed, as a rule, the more healthy and robust a man is, the more liberties he is inclined to take with his own physique. It is some consolation to the naturally weak and feeble to know that they can be so invigorated and built up, by a proper use of the means which science has placed at their disposal, as to have a much better chance of long life, and exemptions from disease and pain, than the most athletic of their fellows who are foolish enough to suppose themselves invulnerable, and act accordingly.

It is not much to say more than half the people of the civilized world need an occasional tonic, to enable them to support the strain upon their bodies and minds, which the fast life of this restless age occasions. In fact, a pure, wholesome, unexciting tonic is the grand desideratum of the busy millions, and they have the article in Hostetter's stomach bitters. It is a staminal medicine, i. e. it imparts permanent strength to weak systems, and invigorates delicate constitutions. Its reputation and its sales have steadily increased. Competitive preparations have been introduced ad libitum, and as far as the public is concerned, ad nauseum, in the hope of rivaling it; but they have all either perished in the attempt, or been left far in the rear. It has been the great medical success of the past century, and it is quite certain that no proprietary medicine in this country is as widely known, or as generally used.

Ten lightning presses running incessantly (Sundays excepted,) the whole year through, barely supply the demand for the illustrated Almanac, in which the nature and uses of the preparation are set forth, the circulation now being over eight millions a year.

ΨΥΧΗ PSYCHOMANCY.

This word is derived from the Greek, signifying the power of the soul, spirit or mind, and is the basis of all human knowledge. Psychomancy is the title of a book of 400 pages, by Herbert Hamilton, B. A., giving full instructions in the science of soul charming and physcologic fascination; how to exert this wonderful power over men or animals instantaneously, at will. It teaches mesmerism, how to become trance or writing mediums, divination, spiritualism, alchemy, philosophy of omens and dreams, Brigham Young's Harem, Guide to Marriage &c. This is the only book in the English language professing to teach this occult power, and is of immense advantage to the merchant in selling goods, the lawyer in gaining the confidence of jurors, and the physician in healing the sick, to lovers, in securing the affections of the opposite sex, and all seeking riches or happiness. Price by mail, in cloth, $1,25; paper covers, $1. For sale by J B Lippincott & Co., and Claxson, Remson & Co., Philadelphia, Pa. Agents wanted for this book, private medical works, perfumery, jewelry &c., who will receive samples free. Address, T. W. Evans, Publisher and Perfumer, 41 South st. Philadelphia, Pa.

AGENTS WANTED FOR

A strangely fascinating, powerfully written book. From a new stand point and upon a subject of vital and absorbing interest. In two parts. Showing the horrors of the barbarous system of treatment in vogue in many prisons, and the advantages of the system recently inaugurated in others, together with a true and detailed account of the maltreatment and cruelties practiced upon prisoners; also, shame faced criminalities with the female convicts, mutinies, murders, starvings, whippings, hair breadth escapes, sketches and incidents, narratives, pen pictures, sunshine and shade, illustrative of prison life. Written by a Convict, in a Convict's Cell. In one volume 540 pages, over 50 elegant engravings, made expressly for this book. 48 sample pages and sample illustrations sent on application, or a bound prospectus, for 80 cents. C. F. Vent, Cincinnati, New York or Chicago.

JURUBEBA

WHAT IS IT?

It is a sure and perfect remedy for all diseases of the liver and spleen, enlargement or obstruction of intestines, urinary, uterine or abdominal organs, poverty or a want of blood, intermittent or remittent fevers, inflamation of the liver, dropsy, sluggish circulation of the blood, abscesses, tumors, jaundice, scrofula, dyspepsia, ague and fevers or their concomittants.

Dr. Wells having become aware of the extraordinary medicinal properties of the south American plant, called sent a special commission to that country to procure it in its native purity, and having found its wonderful curative properties to even excell the anticipations formed by its great reputation, has concluded to offer it to the public, and is happy to state that he has perfected arrangements for a regular monthly supply of this wonderful plant. He has spent much time in experimenting and investigating as to the most efficient preparation from it, for popular use, and has for some time used in his own practice with most happy results the effectual medicine now presented to the public as

Dr. Wells' Extract of Jurubeba.

And he confidently recommends it to every family as a household remedy which should be freely taken as a blood purifier in all derangements of the system and to animate and fortify all weak and lymphatic temperaments. John Q. Kellogg, Platt st. N. Y. Sole agent for the United States. Price one dollar per bottle. Send for circular.

THE NOVELTY WRINGER.

Nothing, except the sewing machine, has ever been invented which so much relieves the labor of the Household as the wringer. But its usefulness does not stop here. The saving of clothing is of much greater importance. It is often remarked that articles of fine texture last twice as long when wrung in a wringer as when rung by hand. The Novelty has cog wheels on both ends. The rolers are allowed to separate freely at either end. These, besides other advantages which it contains, seem to be indispensable to a practical wringer.—N Y Independent.

The Novelty wringer has become an indispensable institution in thousands of families. And we believe its great and increasing popularity is fully merited for the Novelty evidently possesses all the requisites of a first class practical machine. Indeed, after using one for many months in our own family we are prepared to endorse the Nov. as unsurpassed (the laundress says unequaled), by any of the several wringers previously tried.—Moore's Rural New Yorker.

Dr. J. LONG,

Eclectic Physician,

Has located himself at Massillon, O., for the treatment of Female & Chronic Diseases.

Office east of the Park, second door of Mr. Falke's new building.

All consultations and examinations of patients made free of charge.

Dr. Long examines and explains your disease without asking any questions. If he understands your case you know it, and cannot be deceived. If he cannot tell your disease, and how you feel without asking questions he does not consider himself competent to treat your case. This is the criterion to go by, and patients should not be satisfied with any other. This is the only direct and positive evidence of my ability as a scientific physician, and by this standard I am willing to be judged.

A proper diagnosis of local disease, without constitutional symptoms, that is, not affecting the system generally, must depend upon the judgment of both patient and physician.

Give Dr. Long a call, and satisfy yourselves whether he understands your cases sufficiently well to treat them successfully.

Dr. Long may be consulted in the German and English languages. Address letters,

JAMES LONG, M. D.,

Manhood: how Lost, how Restored.

Just published, a new edition of Dr. CULVERWELL'S Celebrated Essay on the radical cure, without medicine, of Spermatorrhœa, or Seminal weakness, involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc.; also, Consumption, Epilepsy and Fits, induced by self indulgence or sexual extravagance.

Price in a sealed envelope only six cents.

The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice that the alarming consequences of self abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

This lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.

Sent under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, postpaid on receipt of six cents or two post stamps.

Also, Dr. Culverwell's "Marriage Guide," price 25 cents.

DR. AUGUSTUS SLEE

Treats all private diseases with great success Spermatorrhœa, or seminal weakness and impotency, caused by selfabuse, etc—producing General Debility of the body, Indigestion, want of proper Manliness, Loss of Memory, Indolence; reducing the System so as to render Marriage unadvisable—Permanently Cured.

Long standing constitutional disease skillfully treated and cured.

Effects of Mercury Eradiated.

The doctor gives particular attention to Female complaints. Sterility, Ammenorrhœa, Mennorrhagia, and all such diseases, causing annoyance and interfering with the general health and enjoyment of life, invariably removed.

Send for the doctor's medical pamphlet, treatire, in plain language, on veneral diseases, enabling the afflicted to understand their own complaints. Free at office or sent securely sealed, for six cents.

Ample accomodations for patients from a distance at the house.

Office hours from 9 A. M. to 8 P. M., Sundays excepted. All communictions to be addressed DR. AUGUSTUS SLEE, 264 Penn street, Pittsburg, Pa.

DR. WHITTIER

Continues to treat all private diseases, syphilis in all its forms, gonorrhœa, gleet, stricture, orchitis, and all urinary diseases, and the effects of mercury are completely eradicated; spermatorrhea or seminal weakness and impotency, resulting from self abuse or other causes, and which produce some of the following effects, as blotches, bodily weakness, indigestion, consumption, aversion to society, unmanliness, dread of future events, loss of memory, indolence, nocturnal emissions, and finally so prostrating the sexual system as to render marriage unhistory, and therefore imprudent, permanently cured.

It is self evident that the physician who confines himself exclusively to the study of a certain class of diseases and treats thousands of cases every year must acquire a greater skill in that speciality than one in general practice.

The establishment, comprising ten ample rooms, is central. When it is not convenient to visit the city, the doctor's opinion can be obtained by giving a written statement of the case, and medicines can be sent by mail or express.

The doctor publishes a medical pamphlet of fifty pages that gives a full exposition of venereal and private diseases that can be had free at office or by mail, in sealed envelope, for two stamps. Every sentence contains instruction to the afflicted, and enabling them to determine the precise nature of their complaints.

Hours 9 a. m to 8 p. m. Sundays 12 m, to 2 p. m. Office, No. 295 Penn street, Pittsburg, Pa. 366-1y.

Henry T. Helmbold's

COMPOUND FLUID

Extract Catawba

GRAPE PILLS.

Component Parts—Fluid Extract Rhubarb and Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Juice.

For Liver Complaints. Jaundice, Bilious Affections, Sick or Nervous Headache, Costiveness, etc. Purely vegetable containing no Mercury, Minerals or Deleterious drugs.

H

These pills are the most delightfully pleasant purgative, superseding castor oil, salts, magnesia, etc. There is nothing more acceptable to the stomach. They give tone and cause neither nausea nor griping pains. They are composed of the finest ingredients. After a few day's use of them, such an invigoration of the entire system, takes place as to appear miraculous to the weak and enervated, whether arising from imprudence or disease. H. T. Helmbold's Compound Fluid Extract Catawaba Grape Pills are not sugar coated, from the fact that sugar coated pills do not dissolve, but pass through the stomach without dissolving, consequently do not produce the desired effect. The Catawaba Grape Pills, being pleasant in taste and odor, do not necessitate their being sugar coated, Price 50 cents per box.

E

Henry T. Helmbold's

Highly Concentrated Compound

Fluid Extract Sarsaparilla

Will radically exterminate from the system scrofula, syphilis, fever sores, ulcers sore eyes sore legs, sore mouth, sore head, bronchitis, skin diseases, salt rheum, cankers, runnings from the ear, white swellings tumors, cancerous affections, nodes, rickets, glanular swellings, night sweats, rash, dyspepsia, and all diseases that have been established in the system for years.

L

Being prepared expressly for the above complaints, its blood purifying propensities are greater than any other preparation of Sarsaparilla. It gives the complection a clear and healthy color, and restores the patient to a state of health and purity. And is the only reliable remedy for the cure of pains and swellings of the bones, ulcerations of the throat and legs, blotches, pimbles, erysipelas and all scaly eruptions of the skin, and cleansifying the complexion. Price $1,00 per bottle.

M

Henry T. Helmbold's

CONCENTRATED

Fluid Extract Buchu,

The Great Diuretic, has cured every case of diabetes in which it has been given. Irritation of the neck of the bladder and inflamation of the kidneys, ulceration of the kidneys and bladder, retention of the urine, gravel, milky discharges, and for enfeebled and delicate constitutions of both sexes, attended with loss of memory, indisposition, weak nerves, trembling, pain in the back, hot hands, dryness of the skin, and a host of other symptoms. Used by persons from the ages of eighteen to twenty-five, and from thirty-five to fifty-five, or in the decline or change of life: after confinement or labor pains; bed wetting in children.

Helmbold's Extract Buchu is Diuretic and blood purifying, and cures diseases arising from dissipation, excess and imprudences in life, impurities of the blood, etc., supersedes copaiby in affections in which it is used, and, syphilic affections—in these affections used in connection with Helmbold's rose wash.

Ladies. In many affections peculiar to ladies, the buchu is unequaled by any other remedy—as in chlorosis, irregularity, ulcerated state of the uterus, leucorrhœa or whites, sterility, and for all complaints incident to the sex, whether arising from indiscretion or dissipation. It is prescribed by physicians and midwives for the enfeebled and delicate constitutions of both sexes, and all ages.

O

H. T. HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU cures diseases arising from imprudences habits of dissipation, etc. in all their stages, at little expense, little or no change in diet, no inconvenience, and no exposure. It causes a frequent desire, and gives strength to urinate, thereby removing obstructions, preventing and curing strictures of the urethra, so frequent in this class of diseases.

Use Helmbold's Extract Buchu for all affections and diseases of the urinary organs, whether existing in male or female, from whatever cause originating and no matter of how long standing. Price $1,50 cents per bottle.

HELMBOLD'S IMPROVED ROSE WASH cannot be surpassed as a face wash, and will be found the only specific remedy in every species of cutaneous affection. It speedily eradicates pimples, spots, indurations of the cutaneous membran, etc., dispels redness and incipient inflamation, hives, rash, moth patches, dryness of the scalp or skin, frost bites, and all purposes for which salves and ointments are used It is an excellent Lotion for diseases of a syphilitic nature, and as an injection for diseases of the urinary organs, arising from habits of dissipation, used in connection with the extracts Buchu, Sarsaparilla, and Catawaba Grape Pills, in such diseases as recommended cannot be surpassed. Price $1 per bottle.

D

Full and explicit directions accompanying the medicines. Evidence of the most responsible and reliable character furnished on application, with hundreds of thousands of living witnesses, and upward of 30,000 unsolicited certificates and recommendatory letters, many of which are from the highest sources, including eminent physicians, clergymen, statesmen, etc. The proprietor has never resorted to their publication in the newspapers; he does not do this from the fact that his articles rank as standard preparations, and do not need to be propped up by certificates.

H. T. Helmbold's Genuine Preparations.

Delivered to any address. Secure from observation. Established upward of twenty years. Sold by druggists everywhere. Address letters for information in confidence to Henry T. Helmbold, Druggist and Chemist.
